SENATORS ASK WHO GAVE STEIN MONEY

Canaday and Coleman Ask About Mysterious Cash Supplied Lawyer for Committee That Hit Teachers' Federation—Judge O'Connor Blocks School Board.

Teachers' fight for the right to have a federation won at three points today:

1—Judge O'Connor decided for immediate hearing of the injunction petition of State's Att'y Hoyne and the Teachers' Federation, this being a turndown for the Loeb-Rothman crowd of the board of education.

2—Senators Canaday and Coleman on the Baldwin senate committee say the stench of scandal around that committee is now so strong that they won't go to any meeting of the committee unless it is in the open, with newspaper men and the public free to come in and hear what's said and done.

3—Judge O'Connor ordered Att'y Shannon of the school board to phone Sec'y Larson to stop sending out blank pledges to the school teachers.

Because Myer Stein, attorney for the Baldwin senate committee, got a lot of money from unknown persons and offered this money to senators for "expenses," and

Because neither Stein nor anybody else has told who put up this money to be paid senators for "expenses," and
